

My name is Theresa Pape, and I am an animal communicator, Reiki master and pet portrait artist based in Fargo, North Dakota. With God's guidance I am guided to communicate with animals living or deceased to convey their wants and needs so they can have more harmonious relationships with their 2 legged parents.

Along with communicating with your fur babies I also offer Reiki as another service. With the help of my guides I am directed to areas on your fur baby that may need energy moved; by moving the energy, it will help promote emotional or physical healing.

You can find me on my website www.theresapape.com or on facebook Theresa Pape or call me at 701-361-6867.
